Who is it that didn't read in last week's newspapers of the great auction Carpet sale? when 40,000 rolls of Carpets were sold in two days in one of New York's big auction-rooms for a carpet manufac-turer who had made more carpets than he could sell. The newspapers stated satisfactory prices were received. Yes, satisfactory for you. The result of our purchase at that great sale will have an effect on prices here for the balance of the country of th the season. Don't buy now at the old

SANTA CLAUS'S STOREHOUSE!

Appreciating the want of a LEGITIMATE TOY STORE, and feeling it one of Richmond's greatest needs—having the ladies begging for a line of TOYS outside of ordinary trash—we took the large store (Wenzel's old stand) on Broad street, and turned our Mr. Charles H. Phillips loose with his hobby, and for the past six months he has been talking Toys, dreaming Toys, painting Toys, inventing Toys, and ordering Toys. In fact, the ladies and children will find him authority on anything from a Logomachy to a Tiddledy-Wink.
